

Organizational Consulting Matters

Cost-Effective Organizational Consulting Solutions for Every Business

HR Consulting

We provide human resources consulting, on an as-needed basis, to small and medium-sized entities, as well as established businesses on all areas of human resources.

People Consulting

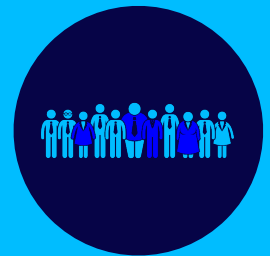

We help assess the 'human' component of your business, using various assessment tools and resources, to ensure you have the right people in the right role with the right capabilities.

Employee Relations

We provide a wide range of employee relations services from employee on-boarding, performance management, conflict resolution through to termination.

Industrial Relations

We provide a wide range of industrial relations services from performance management, grievance management, collective bargaining through to dispute resolution management.